FOREWORD

is there to meet a campus than its doors!

the doors of the past year, we are reminded of that last touchdown;
that day the frosh dragged the sophomores and Riley; of the cuts and bruises
the girls whipped the sophomores;
the and sophistication of the junior-senior
the seniors "snuck";
history quizzes, philosophy term papers, exam cramming;
hall sessions . . .; chapel hymn sings and guest speakers, of May Day and Commencement which ended a wonderful year.

1962 Ista will help you view and review these memories as we through Bluffton's doors . . .

L. to R: T. Clemens, Pres.; J. Byler, Sec.; S. Diller, M. Liechty, J. Creel, T. Hart, D. Bishop, C. Purves, J. Emmert, L. Mohr, W. Stemen, V. Pres.; A. Slotter.

Student Council

The Student Council is an organization of campus government whose responsibility is to represent the student body, coordinate student activities, promote general student welfare, and seek to find means to foster continued harmony between the aims and ideals of the college and the student body. Members are representatives from each class elected by the students.

The Council of Clubs, an organization for co-ordinating the campus clubs, is made up of officers and representatives from the major campus organizations and activities. Officers: Ted Clemens, Pres.; Willis Stemen, V. Pres.; Janet Byler, Sec.

The Student Christian Association, through its commissions (the Peace Club, Rec Club, International Relations Club, and the Faith and Life Commission), sponsors many of the activities on campus. In addition to the commission activities and monthly meetings the SCA sponsored Christian Life Week, the fall Mixer, the marriage course, the May Day Luncheon, and the World University Drive.

The Social Action Committee was very busy this year planning weekend work-camps for the student body.

Men's Varsity B

Men's Varsity B is composed of all those men who have earned their Varsity letter in any one sport. After lettering in the same sport two consecutive years, Varsity B jackets are awarded to the members.

The club is responsible for the intramural activities and for Homecoming Activities. Financial support is gained by selling concessions and programs at football and basketball games, and also by selling refreshments at the high school basketball tournaments.

The highlight of the year comes at the May Day breakfast when awards are given to all men who have lettered throughout the year.

Woman's Varsity B offers intramural and intercollegiate athletic activities for the women on campus. These activities include volleyball, basketball, trampoline, badminton, tennis, soccer, softball, bowling, and swimming.

Other activities of the WVB include selling programs at football games, selling megaphones at basketball games and sponsoring a valentine party and a faculty night.

During the year points are accumulated by the members toward particular awards. These awards are WVB pin, white blazer, WVB bracelet and pen and pencil set.

A Cappella Choir

The Art Department and the A Cappella Choir together produced a program following the Christmas banquet.

"On to Europe in '62"

"All right, you guys!"

Concerts of sacred choral works are presented by the A Cappella Choir, a select group of approximately sixty voices directed by Mr. Earl Lehman. The choir sang at numerous churches; made weekend tours to Chicago, Elkhart, Nappanee, eastern Ohio, and Berne; made a record; presented the Dubois "Seven Last Words" at Easter-time, the Christmas and Commencement weekend programs; and gave several concerts for area clubs and high schools.

The dream-goal of Mr. Lehman and forty of the choir members, the summertime concert tour of five European countries, actually became a reality with the advent of shots, passport applications, boat tickets, German lessons and much hard work. "On to Europe in '62" is the slogan for the seven-week tour of England, France, Germany, Holland and Switzerland, culminating at the World Conference of Mennonites in Kitchner, Ontario.

Choral Society

Two hundred voices from the college and surrounding community under the direction of Mr. James Bixel comprise the Bluffton College Choral Society. The annual Christmas-time rendition of G. F. Handel's great oratorio, the Messiah, is presented by the group accompanied by the college orchestra. A new Lenten tradition was begun this year as Mr. William Byrd, conductor of the Lima Symphony, directed the Choral Society and the Lima Symphony for the first presentation of the Brahms Requiem in Lima Memorial Hall. John Miller, Pres.; Russell Gregory, Business Manager; and Miss Helen Martens, Accompanist, assisted Mr. Bixel with the rehearsals.

Choraliers

For those students interested in choral work of a secular nature, the Choraliers offers an opportunity to participate with others in song. Mr. James Bixel directs the choir, which sang at the Booster Banquet in the spring and several concerts during the year and presented a chapel program of Christmas music.

Elected as officers are: Phillip Kingsley, Pres.; Steven Cross, V. Pres.; Fern Woolner, Sec.-Treas.; Beth Berkey and Karen Born, Librarians. Margie Liechty is accompanist.

Bluffton Posts 5-3 Football Record for Seventh Consecutive Winning Season

The 1961 edition of Ken Mast's Bluffton College football squad finished with a record of five wins and three losses despite the fact that this year's team was by far the smallest of recent years. After the first two games, Coach Mast admitted at a pep rally that "When I look at these guys as individuals I see nothing—but when I see them as a team, that's something else. The question then is . . ."

Bluffton Compiles 5-15 Basketball Record in Rebuilding Season

At the end of the basketball season, Coach Ken Mast found that of the fourteen players remaining on the squad, ten were freshmen. He can expect, though the team won just five games throughout the season, that the future of Beaver basketball may be a bright one, for several of this flock of freshmen showed great promise and improvement during their first year of hardwood action. Mast believes that the only thing the Beavers need to become a real league contender is another big man to help rangy Wayne Dickason control the boards and give the Beavers another major offensive threat.

Bluffton Stuns Findlay 66-64 in Overtime

The Beaver, in what was their biggest victory of the season, stopped rival Findlay College 66-64 in overtime. The win came as sweet revenge, for the Oilers had earned a 64-49 victory over Bluffton earlier in the year. With the score tied 58-58 at the end of the regulation game, Freshman Jerry Burrey hit three field goals and two free throws to score all of Bluffton's overtime points and give the Beavers a two point edge. Burrey scored 14 points in the game, but Freshmen Bob Raber and Chuck Buroker paced the team 18 and 15 points respectively.

Goshen Falls, 81-66

Bluffton whipped Goshen College, 81-66, in the annual battle between the two Mennonite schools. The Beavers played inspired basketball against the Mapleleaves, and in the last few minutes threatened to break the game wide open. Bluffton's fast break hurt Goshen in the last half, and John Wolfinger, Jerry Burrey, and Phil Horrisberger scored several easy layins to insure the victory for the Beavers. Burrey and Wolfinger led the scoring with 22 and 19 points, and were followed by Horrisberger and Wayne Dickason, both with 14.

and these offer plenty of evidence that Bluffton's cheerleaders are cute, energetic, spirited, well organized and dedicated to their task.

The group is composed of three seniors, a sophomore, and two freshmen. It has created a never-ending source of enthusiasm at basketball and football games.

A lack of depth in field events kept Bluffton's track team from finishing higher than fourth in the Mid-Ohio Conference track meet, but the individual stars of the team came up with some record breaking performances. Bluffton's crack mile relay team smashed the conference record, which it had established last year, three times throughout the season and came up with a 3:27.7 clocking in the conference meet to take the trophy in that event. The team was composed of Larry Copeland, Denny Bishop, Terry Marshall, and Dale Schiffke.

Denny Bishop and Dale Schiffke also took first and second places in the open half mile run throughout the season. Denny broke Bluffton's record by cutting his time to 2:00.3.

Wayne Dickason cleared the high jump bar at 6'3" to earn a tie for the conference record in that event.

Larry Copeland ran the open 440 yard dash all spring and came up with some exceptional times including a 50.1 clocking in a dual meet with Ohio Northern. Denny Kear clipped off the 100 yard dash in the time of 9.9 seconds, and versatile senior Bill Lape consistently broad jumped at about the 22 foot mark.

The record breakers proudly hold the MOL mile relay trophy.

Baseball

The outstanding success of the 1962 baseball team lies wrapped up in one word — power. Loaded with all kinds of hitting ability, A. C. Burcky was able to pick almost any of his men to play and still come up with a winning combination. The team compiled a .323 batting average and was led by Freshman Johnny Wolfinger who topped all batters with a .500 batting average. Much credit must also go to Terry Ayers, Jerry Burrey and Paul Schilling, who took care of the pitching chores. Ayers finished with an exceptional 1.32 earned run average. The team won 10 and lost 4, and compiled an 8-2 conference record to tie for first place.

Baseball coach and head of the athletic department, A. C. Burcky received a high honor at the close of the season when he was named the National Association of Athletic Collegiate Hall of Fame.

Golf

Kenny Mast's golfers were hurt by graduation and ineligibility, and were forced to submit to a rebuilding. Only one letterman, George Nicholl, was on the team, the others being freshmen. Nevertheless, the team played some very impressive par or near par rounds of golf. The major problems were depth and consistency, and these will be erased when the team gains more experience.

The 1962 track team compiled an eight and one record and went undefeated, five-zero, in MOL action. Don Nussbaum's netters won the league championship, but were nosed out of the conference tournament by Ohio Northern. Depth was the key word in the season's success. Bluffton's third, fourth, and fifth men did not lose an MOL match during regular season play.

Seniors on the team included the number one and three men, Gody Gerber and Jim Burry. Returning will be a junior and sophomore, Stan Clemens and Jim Roth, and three freshmen, Bill Bishop, Roger Burkholder, and Roger George.

Executive committee this week made a cabinet for its consideration of restructuring, calling for special action, and social commissions and committees for those sub-areas which the idea that this would be a tangle of interests and also a student interest and participation.

Factors contributing to the supposed need for a more dynamic influence upon its student body that many members are merely an association "because it is a campus organization" member only or himself.

seemingly competition committees as well as committees of students feel, for example, Peace Club and International Relations Club, as well as actions committee and service units are overlapping and could be consolidated.

A third important factor is the relationship between the SCA and the commissions are whether they are the SCA or students would like to join the SCA and stressed that joint SCA committees of the SCA are to be held to commission suggestions of other possible plans the problems involved, pro and con.

The editor seriously questions the organization of the SCA. While some streamlining may be necessary
